WATERCOLOR, PENCIL & INK WORKSHOP Patricia Buckner
Tues&Thurs, Jan 12-Feb11 10:30a-12:30p

Whether you want to illustrate a story or paint the details of a flower, this course is a workshop in the use of Watercolor Pencil & Ink concentrating on Realism. This course is a step beyond beginner and is designed for students ages 15 through adult. Lab Fee to be collected the first class session: $50 if supplies supplied by teacher OR bring Watercolor Sketch Pad, Watercolor Pencil Set and a range of Ink Pens.
Tuition $160 Member price $140

WATERCOLOR Jeanne DeHaan
All abilities, age 12-adult
Sat & Sun, March 6 & 7 9a-4p

Jeanne gets to the basic understanding of the medium, brush strokes, color mixing using a limited pallet) and how to create life and light in a painting using many different techniques. She works with all levels of learners and tries very hard to increase understanding of how different techniques work in individual applications. Understanding how each level of porosity effects your results in a painting takes the mystery out of watercolor and increases your ability to produce consistent results in every painting and not just have "happy accidents" with no real understanding how to recreate (or avoid) the effect next time. Lab Fee: Cost for basic supplies is $20.00

Tuition $112 Member $98

FIBERS

STACK AND SLASH

(Free Cut Piecing/Drawing with a Rotary Cutter)
Level: Intermediate Mary Bajcz

Monday, Feb 8 & 15 for Free Cut Piecing 6-9pm

Bring your supplies, listed under course description: A simple idea with countless possibilities: stack up pieces of fabric, slash through the stacks, rearrange the pieces and sew them back together into units that can be combined into traditional, pictorial, or abstract designs with curves (or not). Think of this of this as drawing with your rotary cutter, but you don't have to know how to draw. We'll make a leafy wall hanging in class and make some other units to learn the technique. This piecing method makes fabric that can be used in quilts or clothing. Try it; it's liberating!

Note: SUPPLIES NEEDED: Check "Art Classes at <http://huronvalleyarts.org/Art/classes.html>huronvalleyarts.org or call 248-889-8660 for list.
